Code of Conduct

NAPS Events and meetings are designed to increase interaction, engagement, collaboration, connectivity and community, in a fun and safe learning environment.

We value the participation of each member of the community and endeavor to deliver an enjoyable and fulfilling experience. Participants are expected to conduct themselves with integrity, courtesy and respect for others and maintain the highest level of professionalism at all programs and events. All attendees, speakers, organizers, volunteers, partners and staff at any NAPS event are required to observe the following Code of Conduct.

NAPS is dedicated to providing a harassment-free event experience for everyone, regardless of gender, sexual orientation, disability, physical appearance, body size, race or religion. We do not tolerate harassment of conference participants in any form. All communication should be appropriate for a professional audience including people of diverse backgrounds and cultures. Sexual language and imagery is not appropriate for the conference.

Be kind to others. Do not insult or defame participants. Harassment in any form, sexist, racist, or exclusionary jokes are not condoned at NAPS Events.

Participants violating these rules may be asked to leave the conference at the sole discretion of NAPS. Thank for helping to make this a welcoming event for all.
